COURT FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS TO REQUEST POST-DECREE MEDIATION

CHECKLIST

You may use the forms and instructions in this packet if . . .

- ✓ You or the other party want to modify your court order about who has authority to make decisions concerning your children and/or the schedule for parenting time or grandparent visitation, AND
- ✓ You and the other party do not agree on the proposed modification, AND
- ✓ You want to try mediation to resolve decision-making and/or parenting time issues, AND
- ✓ You have an existing case and case number in this Court and a final judgment, decree or order concerning legal decision making (custody) or parenting time (or grandparent visitation) has previously been signed by a Judicial Officer, AND
- ✓ The prior case was for one of the following actions, involving the same minor child(ren) as in this case:
 - “Paternity,” OR
 - “Paternity plus Legal Decision Making (Custody), Parenting Time and/or Support,” OR
 - “Legal Decision Making (Custody), Parenting Time and/or Support,” OR
 - “Legal Separation” or “Divorce With Children,” OR
 - “Grandparent Visitation”

NOTE: A “Joint Request for Post-Decree Mediation” is not the appropriate paperwork to resolve the following issues:

- Child Support
- Enforcement of current court orders
- Cases in which there are allegations of child abuse or CPS involvement
- Modification of custody order earlier than one year after the date of the previous order.

If you file this Request in error, the mediation fee will NOT be refunded to you.**

NOTE: If this is a PRE-Decree matter, meaning an Order, Judgment or Decree has NOT been previously signed by a Judicial Officer in this case, STOP - you must use the PRE-DECREE version of the MEDIATION packet instead.

WARNING! THERE MAY BE A $200 FEE FOR FAILURE TO ATTEND A SCHEDULED MEDIATION. IF YOU CANNOT ATTEND OR NO LONGER NEED MEDIATION, REFER TO THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOW TO PROVIDE PROPER NOTICE TO AVOID HAVING TO PAY THIS FEE.

READ ME: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results. A list of lawyers you may hire to advise you on handling your own case or to perform specific tasks, as well as a list of court-approved mediators can be found on the Self-Service Center website.

INSTRUCTIONS and PROCEDURES TO REQUEST POST-DECREE MEDIATION

STEP 1 Determine if this is the appropriate paperwork.

All of the following statements must be true:

- There is an issue regarding custody and/or parenting time that you and the other party are unable to resolve.
- A final order regarding Custody and Parenting time has been previously filed with the court.
- You know where the other party is and are able to have them served with the papers.
- You and the other party do not wish to file the “Joint Request for Post-Decree Mediation” which does not have to be served on the other party (and which appears later in this packet).

NOTE: A Request for Mediation is not the appropriate paperwork to resolve the following issues:

- Child Support
- Enforcement of current court orders
- Cases in which there are allegations of child abuse or CPS involvement
- Modification of custody order earlier than one year after the date of the previous order.

If you file this Request in error, the mediation fee will NOT be refunded to you. *****

STEP 2 Complete the “Request for Post-Decree Mediation”.

Type or print clearly. Use black ink only. (Match the numbered instructions to the numbers on the “Request for Post Decree Mediation”).

- 1) Fill in the name, address, and phone number of the person requesting mediation. If your address is protected, write ‘Protected’ in the address field.
- 2) Fill in the name of the persons shown as “Petitioner” and “Respondent” in your pre-existing case.
- 3) Write in the case number in the space provided at the top right portion of the form. Your case number begins with “D”, “DR”, or “FC”. This is the same case number as your original divorce, paternity or other family court case.
- 4) Check the appropriate box in section 4 that tells the court whether you are divorced or have had paternity established or “Other” court order entered, such as for Grandparent Visitation.
- 5) Describe the disagreement between you and the other party.
- 6) Check the appropriate box in section 6 to indicate if you have ever participated in Mediation and list when and where any prior Mediation took place.
- 7) Complete the information about the other party. You must be able to provide the current address for the other party to use the mediation services of the Court.
- 8) Sign and date the “Request for Post-Decree Mediation”.

STEP 3 Make 3 copies of the completed “Request for Post-Decree Mediation”.

There will also be an “appearance fee” due from the Respondent, if he or she has not previously “made an appearance”, that is filed a response or other papers and paid a filing fee in this case.

A list of current fees is available from the Self Service Center and from the Clerk of Court’s website.

If you cannot afford the filing fee and/or the fee for having the papers served by the Sheriff or by publication, you may request a deferral (payment plan) when you file your papers with the Clerk of the Court. Deferral Applications are available at no charge from the Self-Service Center.

STEP 4 FILE: Take the original & 3 copies of the "Request for Post-Decree Mediation" to the Clerk of Court Filing Counter at any of the locations listed below. The Clerk will keep the original, date-stamp the 3 copies and return the copies to you.

GRAHAM COUNTY CLERK OF THE COURT
800 W MAIN ST
