RAMADAS – RULES & REGULATIONS

Most ramadas are equipped with picnic tables, grills, nearby playground equipment and other amenities that will make any outing a delight. Call our office for availability on all our ramadas. For detailed information on specific ramada's go to the Graham County website at www.graham.az.gov and click on the Parks & Recreation link.

In accordance with the Parks rules and regulations, reservations are governed by the following conditions:

- Reservations can only be made by individual 18 years or older.
- Parks and Recreation does not guarantee the availability of power due to overloading, malfunctions or vandalism.
- The Parks Department provides picnic tables throughout the parks but cannot guarantee their replacement at specific ramadas, due to mobility of this equipment.
- Picnic tables in the common areas of the park are available on a first come, first served basis.
- Barbecue grills are provided throughout the parks for your enjoyment. Open-pit fires are prohibited.
- NO food or drinks allowed under the covered playground.
- Reservation is valid for the date of event only.
- Glass beverage containers are not permitted.
- All dogs shall be on a leash or otherwise restrained, NO pets allowed under the covered playground under any circumstances.
- The volume of amplified music must be kept low enough as not to disturb other park users. All amplified music must conclude by 10 pm.
- All ramadas must be vacated no later than 10:30 pm.
- Select ramadas have lights at night, however, Graham County is not liable for ramada electrical failures beyond its control.
- No electrical outlets or water spigots are guaranteed to be provided at ramada.
- Pre-approval of all inflatable slides and jumpers is required at time of reservation, power for this type of entertainment will not be provided by Graham County Parks.
- Park closes at 11 pm - gates will be locked at 11 pm nightly

Payment Due Dates

- Your reservation will automatically be cancelled if full payment is not received 48 hours prior to your reservation date.

Payment Types

- Credit/Debit Cards
Checks or Money Orders ($30 fee on all returned checks). Checks payable to the Graham County Parks.
- Cash

Cancellations/Refunds

- To receive a refund, all cancellation requests must be made at least one (1) week prior to the reservation by calling the Graham County Parks & Recreation Office at 928-428-7180.
- No refunds will be issued after the reservation date.
